OCCA Virtual One World You & Me
Today New Vaccine, Tomorrow New World
 - Celebrate the Hope of Our Community Life
 --- Q & A ---

The OCCA has been hosting a variety of virtual events since the onset of the pandemic to maintain a strong sense of community that COVID-19 has hindered. “Today New Vaccine, Tomorrow New World” celebrates the new hope for our community that we hope emerges alongside the new vaccine from pharmaceutical corporation Pfizer. Emily Wang, an OCCA Youth and MWSH Senior, hosted the virtual event via Zoom with guidance from Dr. Kangjian Wu. The night’s agenda consisted of exciting topics surrounding COVID-19 and the new vaccine. Mrs. Qian He, former OCCS principal and current OCCS academic affair Director, talked about the “Impact of the Pandemic on our community”. Next up, we had some scientific heroes lead a Personal Journey: Show and Tell segment. Local community and Pfizer members Zhenghui Li, Nancy Song, Linda Xu, and York Wang have been working on the frontlines to deliver the vaccine. We had Dr. Wei Chen, an OCCA Chinese School teacher and local volunteer, talk about the “COVID-19 Vaccine: Development & Beyond”. President of the OCCA, Dr. Kangjian Wu, followed up with an inspiring and heartwarming presentation of the upcoming “Hope of our OCCA community: Cultural Diversity & Life Enhancements” that we hope can be found through this new vaccine. We ended with a happy hour piano performance with OCCA Youth member Emily Wang and a Q&A discussion. This virtual event was a great reminder that good things will always remain ahead, we just have to keep our hearts and minds open to it. It was a great night for the community to get together and celebrate this new hope for our community.

Many thanks to Dr. Kangjian Wu for putting together such a joyful night. Additional thanks to our planning team and guests for contributing to the night; thank you Wei Chen, Zhenghui Li, Nancy Song, Susan Jiang, Linda Xu, York Wang, Emily Wang, Qian He, Shuangping Wang, Jinlin Du, and Kangjian Wu. Thank you to our audience for joining us as well!

25-Nov-2020

Dear OCCA friends and families,

As we approach the Thanksgiving holidays in what has been an extremely difficult year for all of us, we wanted to take a moment to reflect on a few things for which we are thankful this year: science, resiliency, volunteers, friendships, and all of you.

We are thankful for science because of the hope it is bringing to our community. Throughout history, science has won numerous battles against disease, which has helped to both improve and extend lives. And as we have seen with the recent results from several COVID-19 vaccine candidates, science appears poised, hopefully, to do so yet again.

We are thankful for resiliency—particularly the resiliency we saw throughout the year from OCCS faculty members, students and parents. Their passion, courage and strength enabled us to continue Chinese language education and Chinese cultural heritage promotion under very challenging circumstances.

We are thankful for volunteers—particularly those who volunteer for our community's One World: You & Me virtual series, in which multiple cultural outreach activities have brought great peace and joy to our members and friends for the past several months.

We are thankful for friendships. We are thankful for the friendships we have here in our community that have sustained us throughout a year in which the stakes have never been higher.

Lastly, we are thankful for all of you. Your hard work, your enthusiasm and integrity, and your commitment to our OCCA mission and values helped us to accomplish so much this year, despite unprecedented challenges.

Over the Thanksgiving break, we hope you find time to relax, to reconnect with family and to find joy in the things for which you are thankful. And of course, we hope you and your loved ones stay safe and well.

Yours sincerely,

Kangjian Wu
On behalf of the OCCA Board of Directors
